Once again thank you from everyone at Butterfly for your generous support. We acknowledge and appreciate your generosity and ongoing support. Butterfly's programs and services would not be possible without the contributions of our supporters.

2016 Christmas Appeal

Butterfly's 2016 Christmas Appeal was a great success. We are so thankful to have such wonderful supporters, who come together as a community to contribute to treatment for eating disorders and body-image issues.

Community Fundraising – Get Involved!

Volunteers are the lifeblood of Butterfly. Their commitment and dedication to helping our programs and services reach their full potential is greatly appreciated.

The Value of Sharing Your Story

Stories are powerful tools for healing, as well as raising awareness and understanding. Butterfly knows that sharing stories is a valuable tool in the recovery process. It can not only help people heal, but it can offer hope, understanding and vital information to others going through a similar experience.
